Subject: Validation Process of Master
Program in Journalism

To Directors of International Cooperation Office at:

University of Tripoli,
University of Misurata,
University of Zawia,
Sirte University.

In reference to your request relative to the validation of the proposed Cross-Media Master Program in Journalism that has been developed by the above-mentioned universities in the context of the PAGES Project, co-funded by the Erasmus+ Program of the European Union, I am very much pleased to convey to you that after reviewing the materials presented, it has been decided to confer validation on this Cross-Media Master Program in Journalism in your respective universities.

I would like to kindly ask you to convey this decision to the respective Faculties and/or Departments of Journalism within your universities, so that they take all necessary steps to ensure conducting this new program in the best possible and most effective and successful manner.

Furthermore, I would like to indicate the necessity that you remind the Faculties and/or Departments of Journalism within your universities to make sure that they pursue subsequent internal validation process for their newly established programs according to the standards and criteria set forth within the validation office of each of the previously indicated Libyan universities.

Please feel free to contact this Office for any other matter relative to the validation process of newly envisioned academic programs.
